Dear Ms Monson,

I recently appeared in court for a speeding offence, if I had received 6 points I would have lost my licence under the New Drivers Act. I was unsure whether I should plead guilty or not guilty and I felt very troubled. A friend recommended that I call Mary Monsons for advice as they had previously been represented by one of your barristers. I spoke to Feroz Bhimani, who he helped me immensely. He explained carefully what would happen without treating me like I was stupid, a relief after calling two other lawyers who were either clueless or condescending. Feroz seemed to really understand my case, the consequences of each plea and the help I needed, this filled me with confidence in him and based on his advice I decided to plead guilty and accept his offer of representation.

Throughout the lead up to my appearance in court Feroz kept in touch with me and whenever I had a question my emails were always answered promptly and accurately. Feroz made me feel that my case was significant and he was taking care to prepare fully and confer with the barrister representing me in court, I felt peace of mind.

Feroz arranged an outstanding barrister to represent me in court, she helped me through the morning and understood that this was a daunting experience for me and in the court room she really shone. My sentence was a 14 day ban and a £65 fine. I am overjoyed with this result, it is far better than I could ever have hoped for and I am extremely grateful to Feroz for all his work both on the case and arranging the barrister in court. It really made all the difference to know that my case was being looked after properly and I felt I was getting the best service possible. I would definitely recommend calling Feroz to a friend if ever they found themselves in a similar situation. I feel it is important that you are aware of the outstanding service Feroz has provided me.

Yours Sincerely
